

Making a structural cross section III: marking tops

With our two-well cross section hung, we can begin to mark stratigraphic correlations, which will in Part IV lead to a simple structural inference.

There's a PGSG page on "Picking tops".